

Apply to Nov 18 No exp. Disability Support Worker (Untaxed) (Paris)

Written by admin

Wednesday, 15 November 2017 00:00 -

QR Code Link to This Post compensation: €15
type d'emploi: Temps partiel
I am a woman with a disability and I use a wheelchair. I am a writer living in the 15th, near Metro Pasteur. This part-time position is to assist me with my personal care needs and light household duties. It is not live-in. Full training is provided so experience is unnecessary. Training & Probation pay is €12 ($AU18) After-probation pay (Paris) is €15 ($AU23). Untaxed. You need to be between approx 165cm (5'4") to 177cm (5'10"). This is because of the type of transfers that I do. You must live in Paris and/or be able to arrive at work within 45 minutes, mainly for your benefit due to early starts. English does not have to be your first language, however you must be able to read and speak it well. You will have 7 shifts a week (15-18 hours), both AM and PM, each week over 4 to 5 days. Morning shifts begin at 5:30 AM for 3 to 4 hours. The night bus (extremely safe early in the morning), cycling or walking etc will get you to work on time. Evening shifts are short and have a varying start time in the late evening. You will always have at least 2 consecutive days off each week but work every second weekend (AM & PM). You need to be fit, 100% healthy, enjoy an active job, be reliable, have empathy, and enjoy taking initiative. Women only can apply due to the nature of the work. Travel opportunities are available.Please apply by email expressing your interest - to Sandra.Let's block ads! (Why?)

CANT SEE FULL AD? READ ORIGINAL AD HERE ! 